Prayer Walk for “Children of Our World”

Florida, USA – Reverend Daniel Garcia, known as “The Walking Man,” intends to begin a journey from the Clearwater, FL, region to Washington, D.C. He will launch this walk on his 73rd birthday as a gift of love to the “Children of Our World.” Rev. Garcia will walk, pray, and be driven in increments by Mr. Konstantinos (Gus) Mousourlis.

Rev. Garcia advocates for children and world peace and carries the simple message: Pray. He has served in the US Marine Corps and as a law enforcement and federal corrections officer. He is a minister and follower of Jesus Christ. Since December 7, 1996, Danny has prayed and walked around the world, covering more than 26,000 miles on six continents.

Rev Garcia appreciates donations to help with logistical needs (gas, lodging, and food) to complete the journey from Florida to Washington, D.C. Donations can be made via check (payable to Global Walk) or by PayPal link: paypal.me/globalwalk.

Date: March 18, 2018

Start time: 2 PM

Location: Leo’s Italian Grill
33286 US Hwy 19 N
Palm Harbor, FL 34684

The walk will end at the White House in Washington, D.C., on April 2, 2018, which is World Autism Awareness Day (WAAD). This walk will bring awareness and support for children with special needs throughout the world.
