

NEWS in brief

Nathaniel Brooks

Journey for peace

Buddhist nun Jun Ya-suda, left, of Rensselaer County's Grafton Peace Pagoda, and Danny Garcia of World Walkers 5 Continents met with students from Darrow School Monday, September 12 as they made their way along a 180-mile walk from Grafton to United Nations Headquarters in New York City. Their caravan is scheduled to arrive in time for the International Peace Day Celebration at the UN Wednesday, September 21.